

Laura Bartel

617-312-7338
laurabartel@nyu.edu

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

New York State Psychiatric Institute December 2016 - Present

Research Assistant

Helps investigate sensory and cognitive impairments in schizophrenia. Collects and analyzes fMRI data, conducts clinical interviews, runs eye-tracking sessions, creates new paradigms, schedules and coordinates participants, trains new research staff.

Burdick Lab - Mount Sinai School of Medicine August 2016 - December 2016

Research Staff

Main responsibilities included data entry in REDCap, screening participants over the phone, and conducting neurocognitive testing.

Amodio Social Neuroscience Lab – New York University June 2014 - May 2016

Research Assistant

Collaborated with multiple supervisors on numerous studies investigating physiological and affective responses to both arousing and negative images. Trained in EEG, eye-tracking, and GSR technologies. Other responsibilities included data entry and analysis in SPSS. Most recently ran a GSR study investigating the physiological, cognitive and behavioral components of disgust.

EDUCATION

New York University, New York, NY August 2012 - May 2016

Bachelor of Arts in Psychology

Psychology GPA – 3.65 Overall GPA – 3.54

University Honors Scholar

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Department of Psychology, New York University August 2015 - May 2016

Teaching Assistant

Taught weekly recitations and led lecture-wide review sessions for Introduction to Psychology at New York University.

SKILLS

SPSS, GSR, eye-tracking, EEG, EMG, fMRI, computer programming